ONEONTA 8 NEWARK 3

ONEONTA, N.Y. – Zach Lucas (Louisville) and Zander Wiel (Vanderbilt) accounted for five runs over the final four innings to help the Outlaws gallop away from the Pilots in front of over 3,000 fans at Damaschke Field. Wiel dashed home on a wild pitch in the sixth to give Oneonta a 3-2 advantage. With the Outlaws leading in the seventh, Lucas smashed an RBI double and then scored on a base hit by Wiel. Oneonta pulled away with three runs in the eighth, two of the three tallies came on a two out, two-RBI triple by Zach Lucas. Oneonta's Nathaniel Abel (Virginia) struck out nine batters and allowed just two runs in six innings to pocket the victory. Relievers Nick Cioffi (Towson) and Jeremy Rhoades (Illinois State) yielded a one score in the final three innings. Cory Hunt (Utah) and Sutton Whiting (Louisville) each had two hits for the Outlaws; Hunt crossed the plate twice and added one RBI. For Newark, Brent Langston (Delta State) and Cash Barker (TAMUK) each went 2-for-4 with one RBI.

MOHAWK VALLEY 10 AMSTERDAM 5

AMSTERDAM, N.Y. –The DiamondDawgs struck six times in the eighth inning in a wild comeback victory over the Mohawks at Shuttleworth Park. With the win, Mohawk Valley kept its' playoff chances alive. The Dawgs entered the eighth behind 5-4; Amsterdam had taken the lead with three sixth-inning scores on RBI doubles from Keaton Flint (Sacred Heart) and D.J. Hoagboon (UAlbany). In the eighth, Mohawk Valley erupted for six runs on three hits and two Amsterdam errors. Chris Cruz (Cornell) and Jack Morrow (Young Harris) belted back-to-back RBI doubles to start the surge that featured 12 batters. Mohawk Valley reliever Aaron Casper (Canisius) spun three scoreless innings to pocket his third win. Chris Cruz finished 2-for-4 with a two-run home run and four RBI and Tyler Heck (Union, N.Y.) scored three times and cracked two hits. Both Keaton Flint and D.J. Hoagboon had three hits and two RBI for the nationally-ranked Mohawks. Hoagboon also pitched 1.1 scoreless innings of relief; he pitched right-handed in the eighth and then threw the ninth as a lefty.

COOPERSTOWN 17 ALBANY 15 (Resumed from 7/12)

ALBANY, N.Y. – Coleman Barron (Davidson) swatted a two out, two-run home run in the eighth inning to propel the Hawkeyes to a shootout victory over the Dutchmen in a resumed game at Bob Bellizzi Field. The contest was originally started on July 12 at Cooperstown's Doubleday Field and suspended after seven innings due to darkness. At the time of the stoppage, Cooperstown led 15-11. Albany roared out of the gate when play resumed with four runs in the eighth inning on six hits. Andrew Pezzuto (Cortland State) had the big blow for the Dutch with a two-run belt and brother Greg Pezzuto (SNHU) tied the game with an RBI single. In the home eighth, Bobby Guerra (Manhattanville) drew a two-out walk and then Coleman Barron belted a pitch over the left-field fence. At its' conclusion, the game featured 32 runs on 35 hits. Thirty-six players were involved in the game which lasted three hours and 48 minutes of actual game play.

ALBANY 8 COOPERSTOWN 2

ALBANY, N.Y. – Will Remillard (Coastal Carolina) and Jon Mestas (Buffalo) combined to drive in six runs and Cody Tollison (MTSU) yielded just two scores in 6.2 frames to lead the Dutchmen over the Hawkeyes in Tuesday's regularly-scheduled game. Mestas forced a 1-1 tie in the second with a sacrifice fly and then Remillard smashed a two-out RBI single in the third to put the Dutchmen on top. Jack Wietlispach (Parkland) followed with an RBI double that gave Albany a 3-1 lead. Remillard added an RBI double as part of a five-run fifth and Mestas belted a three-run home run. Tollison scattered nine hits, allowed one earned run and struck out seven to garner the win. Jack Wietlispach paced Albany with three hits and two runs while Will Remillard drove in two and scored twice. Jacob Hubert (Laredo CC) was the top Cooperstown swinger with three hits. Quinn Pippin (Tulane) singled twice and drove in one run; Bobby Guerra (Manhattanville) also had one RBI.
