ADIRONDACK 9 NEWARK 8 (11)

BOONVILLE, N.Y. – Chris Divarco (NIU) clubbed a two-out home run in the bottom of the 11th inning to give the Trail Blazers a walk-off win over the Pilots at the Smith Sports Complex. Adirondack surged out to an 8-2 lead over the first five frames with home runs from Matt Chaidez (Cal State Stanislaus) and Dominic Fazio (High Point). The Pilots soared back into the game with a six-run eighth that was buoyed by a three-run home run from Samm Wiggins (Houston Baptist) and a game-tying, two-RBI single by Jacob Russell (Kentucky). The game remained tied until the 11th when, with two outs and no runners on base, Chris Divarco slugged the first walk-off home run in the PGCBL this season. The Blazers bashed out 16 hits in their third-straight win. Divarco finished 3-for-5 with two RBI and two runs scored to lead seven Adirondack swingers with multi-hit games. Samm Wiggins and David Vandercook (Columbia) each had three hits for the Pilots; Wiggins and Jacob Russell both drove in three runs.

AMSTERDAM 9 WATERTOWN 4

WATERTOWN, N.Y. – Christian Bartholomew (Wake Forest) and Chris Kalica (SCCC) combined to pitch five innings of scoreless relief and the Mohawks reeled off six-unanswered runs to whip the Rams on Sunday night at the Duffy Fairgrounds. Amsterdam plated three runs in the fourth to force a 3-3 tie however Watertown’s Bobby Indeglia (Holy Cross) answered with an RBI single in the home fourth to restore the Rams’ lead. Christian Bartholomew entered in the fifth and quieted the Watertown bats for three frames; he allowed two singles and struck out three. Chris Kalica followed and seated all six men he faced in a row. With the Rams’ bats silenced, the Mohawks were able to tie the game on a Devin Wenzel (Cincinnati) solo home run in the sixth. Amsterdam surged ahead in the seventh with four runs on four hits; four different players drove in one run each. Jordan Ebert (Auburn) and Shane Zimmer (Canisius) each tallied twice for the Mohawks and Brian Ruby (Binghamton) drove in two runs. John Nogowski (FSU) entered as a defensive replacement; he finished 2-for-2 with an RBI double and a run scored in the decisive seventh inning. Watertown starter Anthony Magovney (Buffalo) pitched a three-hitter over six in a no decision.

ELMIRA 9 COOPERSTOWN 3 (GAME 1)

COOPERSTOWN, N.Y. – The Pioneers scored seven-straight runs to stymie the Hawkeyes in the opening game of a Sunday evening doubleheader at Doubleday Field. The two sides traded single scores in the first as Elmira’s Chris Kalousdian (Manhattan) clubbed an RBI double and Cooperstown’s Ryan Donovan (Hofstra) responded with a sacrifice fly. The Pioneers scored the next seven runs including four in the third inning on two hits and two errors. Ray Navarrete (Samford) capped off the four-run third with a two-RBI double, Ryan Plantier (Cornell) dinged a solo home run in the fourth and Parker Curry (Samford) connected on a two-RBI single in the fifth. Elmira scored at least once in five of seven overall team at-bats and cranked out 13 hits. Chris Kalousdian went 3-for-5 with one RBI and one scored and Frankie Navarrete had two hits, two RBI and two runs scored. Ryan Plantier and Matthew Pelt (Wofford) each tallied twice for the visitors. Elmira starter Tommy Alexander (ODU) held the Hawkeyes to two runs, one earned, on five hits over five innings. Ryan Donovan homered and drove in two of Cooperstown’s three runs. Adam Mund (Albany) and Brendan O’Reilly (New Haven) each had two hits for the home side.

ELMIRA AT COOPERSTOWN (GAME 2) – RAINED OUT

COOPERSTOWN, N.Y. – The second game of Sunday evening’s doubleheader between the Elmira Pioneers and the Cooperstown Hawkeyes was rained out. The start of the contest was delayed 30 minutes by lightning and during the lightning delay, the skies opened up. Because the two teams do not meet again outside of an already scheduled doubleheader on July 21, the game has been cancelled and will not be made up at a later date.
