Game 2: Dunn Field, Elmira, N.Y. (Aug. 7)

Game 3: Shuttleworth Park, Amsterdam, N.Y. (Aug. 8, if nec.)

CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES SCHEDULE

Best-of-three series format

Game 1: Elmira at Amsterdam, 7:05 p.m. (Aug. 6)

Game 2: Amsterdam at Elmira, 7:00 p.m. (Aug. 7)

Game 3: Elmira at Amsterdam, 7:05 p.m. (Aug. 8)

The Series: The third annual Perfect Game Collegiate Baseball League Championship Series pits the nationally-ranked Amsterdam Mohawks, representing the East, against the Elmira Pioneers, representatives of the West. The Mohawks, founded in 1978, are making their third-straight appearance in the PGCBLCS and fifth final appearance in a row. The Pioneers, in their fourth trip to the postseason in eight years, are looking for their second summer baseball league championship. This will be the first PGCBL postseason meeting between the two teams and second all-time. Amsterdam and Elmira met in the 2010 New York Collegiate Baseball League Championship Series.

Season Series: Amsterdam captured the regular season series from Elmira with three wins in four total games. Elmira sprinted out to a 6-0 lead and held on for a soggy 7-6 victory at rainy Dunn Field on June 13. Six days later, the Mohawks marched out to a 9-2 lead at home against the Pioneers and ended up out-lasting Elmira by a 9-7 score. Rain heavily impacted Elmira's next trip to the Rug City, a rain-shortened game that went just six innings and saw Amsterdam score six times in a rainy bottom of the sixth inning to pull out a comeback win. The last meeting between the two teams came the day after the PGCBL All-Star Game. Amsterdam pounded out 13 hits and scored 10 runs in a 10-1 victory.

Date (Site)	Result
June 13 (Elmira)	Elmira 7-6
June 19 (Amsterdam)	Amsterdam 9-7
June 27 (Amsterdam)	Amsterdam 9-6 (6)
July 25 (Elmira)	Amsterdam 10-1

Head Coaches – Amsterdam: Keith Griffin

Keith Griffin is in his fifth season as the manager of the Mohawks and he is just two wins away from his fourth summer baseball championship. His Mohawks have advanced to the league finals in each year he has been with the team. Griffin has won over 170 games as the Amsterdam skipper and that includes more than 153 regular season victories in five years. He has a 21-4 mark in the postseason, 9-4 in the PGCBL playoffs. Griffin is the Mohawks' franchise wins leader. The Amsterdam skipper is the first head coach in team history to spend more than three seasons at the helm. Over the last five years, he has collected three league championships, four division titles and five playoff championship round appearances. Outside of the PGCBL, the Alabama native has collegiate head coaching experience from Okaloosa-Walton C.C. and Jefferson Davis C.C. Griffin's JDCC team won the 1998 NJCAA Division II national title.

How They Got Here

Amsterdam finished the regular season on a 25-7 run and claimed the division championship in the PGCBL East by four games over second-place Glens Falls. The nationally-ranked Mohawks won at least 30 games for the third year in a row. Amsterdam outlasted Albany, two games to one, in the divisional finals. The Mohawks completed the series with a 9-4 win in Game 3 on Sunday night. Elmira was the second of six PGCBL postseason teams to claim a spot in the playoffs though the Pioneers finished third in the PGCBL West behind Watertown and Newark. The third-seeded Pioneers shut out the second-seeded Pilots, 5-0, in the opening round of the playoffs and then swept Watertown, two games to none, in the divisional finals. Elmira is unbeaten in three playoff games this year.

Head Coaches – Elmira: Matt Burch

Matt Burch is in his fourth season overall as the head coach of the Pioneers. Burch guided the Pioneers from 2006 through 2008 and then re-joined the team for his second go-around with the Southern Tier summer collegiate-side. The Elmira, N.Y., native and former first round draft pick helmed the Pioneers to the playoffs twice in his first three years with the team. Burch's 2007 Elmira squad won the NYCBL championship and went a dazzling 6-0 in the league playoffs. Heading into the PGCBLCS, Burch boasts a 9-2 postseason mark; a Matt Burch-led Elmira team has not lost a playoff game since 2006. Burch was a star pitcher at Thomas A Edison High School and Virginia Commonwealth University. He was taken by the Royals in the first round of the 1998 draft. Matt was a player-coach for the Northeast League's 2004 Elmira Pioneers.

It's you, again?! Amsterdam and Elmira are meeting in a league championship series for the second time in four years. Prior to the formation of the PGCBL in the fall of 2010, both the Mohawks and Pioneers were members of the New York Collegiate Baseball League. Amsterdam and Elmira played for the NYCBL championship in 2010. The Mohawks swept the series, 2-0.

Amsterdam: Titletown: Amsterdam is attempting to win its' seventh summer collegiate baseball championship. The Mohawks have won summer league crowns in 1988, 2003, 2004, 2009, 2010 and 2012. Overall, Amsterdam is making its' 19th trip to the postseason and 12th in the last 13 seasons. The Tribe is 21-4 in the league playoffs over the last five years under Keith Griffin and that includes a 15-game winning streak that stretched from 2009 through 2011. Amsterdam's six summer baseball titles lead all PGCBL teams; no other league team has more than one. Five of the six titles for the Mohawks have been won since the team moved to Shuttleworth Park in 2003.

#Winning: Amsterdam is the winningest team in the three-year history of the Perfect Game Collegiate Baseball League. Over the league's three-year history, Amsterdam has amassed a regular season record of 96-45 (.681). Twice, the Mohawks have had the best overall record in the league and the team has not missed the PGCBL playoffs. Amsterdam has been to the PGCBL Championship Series three years in a row. The next closest team to Amsterdam in regular season wins is Glens Falls with 84.

Amsterdam, Nationally Speaking: The Amsterdam Mohawks enter the 2013 PGCBL Championship Series ranked 22nd in Perfect Game's Summer Top 30 poll. The Mohawks have been nationally ranked at least once in each of the last four years. Amsterdam spent all of last summer in the national rankings and rose as high as number two after winning the PGCBL championship. Keith Griffin's Mohawks finished the 2012 summer season ranked third nationally behind the Newport Gulls of the New England Collegiate Baseball League and the LaCrosse Loggers of the Northwoods League.

Elmira, a History of Winning: While the summer collegiate Pioneers have only been around since 2006, baseball in Elmira goes back to the late 1800s. Over the years, 12 teams representing the city of Elmira have won league championships. The Pioneers, as an affiliate of various major league clubs, won 10 minor league championships (1914, 1937, 1938, 1941, 1943, 1962, 1964, 1966, 1971, 1976). Elmira's most successful run came in the Double-A Eastern League as an affiliate of the Baltimore Orioles with three league championships in seven years. The first non-affiliated championship in the Soaring City came in 1997 when the independent Pioneers won the Northeast League championship over the Albany-Colonie Diamond Dogs. The summer collegiate Pioneers won the NYCBL championship in 2007.

Elmira's Path to the Majors: Former Major League players and coaches that spent time in Elmira during the franchise's minor league affiliate days include Earl Weaver, Lou Pinella, Cal Ripken Sr., Jim Palmer, Davey Johnson, Wade Boggs, Curt Schilling, John Valentin, Eric Wedge, Ellis Burks, Mike Greenwell and Brady Anderson.

Players in the Pros: In the 35-year history of the Mohawks franchise, over 130 players have gone on to play professional baseball. There are currently 31 players active in the Majors, minors and independent leagues. San Francisco Giants outfielder Hunter Pence was a member of the Schenectady Mohawks in 2002. The Mohawks also boast three current AAA players in Brendan Harris (Schenectady 1997), Cord Phelps (Amsterdam 2006) and Logan Darnell (Amsterdam 2008). The summer collegiate Pioneers have sent 22 players on to professional baseball in eight years. Cody Eppley, a member of the inaugural Elmira NYCBL squad in 2006, made his Major League debut with the Texas Rangers two years ago. Cody has pitched for both the Rangers and Yankees. He is currently a teammate of former Amsterdam pitcher Logan Darnell with the AAA Rochester Red Wings in the Minnesota farm system.

Hey, Is He Related To That Guy, Ivy Edition? Short answer, yes, for both. Amsterdam's Kevin Guthrie (Brown) is the son of former Major League Baseball pitcher Mark Guthrie. The elder Guthrie was a seventh-round pick of the Minnesota Twins in 1987. He went on to a 15-year Major League career that included stops with eight different clubs. Mark was part of Minnesota's World Series championship team in 1991 and he pitched for five different playoff teams. Elmira's Ryan Plantier (Cornell) is the son of former Major League Phil Plantier. The elder Plantier was an 11th-round pick of the Boston Red Sox out of high school in 1987. He went on to an eight-year Major League career that included stops with five different teams. Guthrie and Plantier faced off twice during the 1992 season when Guthrie's Twins hosted Plantier's Red Sox at the Metrodome. Plantier singled off of Guthrie in the seventh inning on July 16; three days later, Guthrie struck out Plantier in the fifth.

Jersey Shore: Egg Harbor Township sits on the southeastern edge of New Jersey, just outside of Atlantic City. The township, which holds a little over 43,000 people, will be represented in the PGCBL Championship Series by Elmira's Chris Knott (East Stroudsburg) and Amsterdam's Ed Charlton (NJIT). Both players starred in high school in the Cape Atlantic League which also produced current Major Leaguer Mike Trout. Knott attended Egg Harbor Township High School. He was the Press of Atlantic City's Player of the Year as a senior in 2010 and went on to be named All-Group IV second team and third team all-state. The following year, Charlton, from St. Augustine Prep, took home the Press of Atlantic City's Player of the Year award. Charlton led his St. Augustine team to the Non-Public A state championship. Both Knott and Charlton are alums of the Canes Baseball, Margate (N.J.).

Sweet Home Alabama: The state of Alabama will be well represented in the Championship Series. The Mohawks boast Trey Wingenter (Auburn/Madison, Ala.), Jordan Ebert (Auburn/Foley, Ala.) and Dylan Smith (Auburn/Pinson, Ala.) all from the Alabama. Elmira's Parker Curry (Samford/Pelham, Ala.) also hails from the Yellowhammer State. Last year, all four players were competing in Alabama 6A high school baseball. Ebert, Smith and Wingenter were all named to the 6A all-state first team by the Alabama Sports Writers Association. Curry's Pelham squad was the top-ranked squad in Alabama 6A and also spent time in the national high school rankings.

NOTES CONT...

Capital District State of Mind: Five players in the PGCBLCS call the Capital District of Upstate New York home – Elmira's Dave Hoffmann (Siena) as well as Amsterdam's Matt Snyder (Temple 2013-14), Chris Kalica (St. John's 2013-14), Mike Urbanski (Binghamton) and Zach Breen (Schenectady County C.C.). Hoffmann, Snyder, Kalica and Breen all played against one another in Albany's Suburban Council; all four were named to the 2011 Suburban Council all-league team. Urbanski competed for CBA-Albany in the Big 10.

Section IV Connections: The other Upstate New York connection in the PGCBLCS comes through Section IV. Amsterdam's Brian Ruby (Binghamton) and Elmira's Jacob Meehan (Niagara County C.C.), Anthony Roma (Herkimer County C.C.), Austin Hill (Corning C.C.), Brandon Diorio (Ithaca), Jim Tunison (Misericordia) and Colby Gee (Ithaca) are all graduates of schools that compete in Section IV. Ruby, Meehan, Roma, Hill and Diorio all played in the Southern Tier Athletic Conference.

We're Going Streaking: Amsterdam finished the regular season on an 11-game unbeaten streak which tied for the longest in league history. Amsterdam dropped a 6-2 rain-shortened decision to Watertown on July 19. The Mohawks won their next 10 games by an average score of 10-3. On the final day of the regular season, Amsterdam and Cooperstown played to a 4-4 deadlock through nine innings. The game was called due to darkness prior to the start of the 10th inning. Amsterdam neither won nor lost the game however statistics from the contest counted. The Tribe saw its unbeaten streak end at 12 games with Saturday night's loss to Albany in Game 2 of the Eastern Division finals.

Slow Start, Strong Finish: Not including a suspended game on June 6 with Utica, Amsterdam began the season with a 5-9 record. Following an 11-7 loss to Glens Falls, the Mohawks sat in last place in the PGCBL East, six games behind first place Albany and two back of fourth-place Mohawk Valley. Including the Utica game from June 6, Amsterdam finished the regular season on a 26-7 run to capture first place in the division and clinch home-field advantage throughout the playoffs. The 26-7 run included a 15-1 finish the season; that run began after a 3-2 loss to Adirondack which put the Mohawks 3.5 games out of first. Amsterdam won the division by four games over second-place Glens Falls.

Mohawk Mashers: Amsterdam hit just 21 home runs last year en route to its first PGCBL championship. This summer, the Mohawks belted out 36 home runs to finish second in the league in long balls behind Adirondack (37). Thirteen Amsterdam swingers clubbed at least one home run. Ed Charlton (NJIT) and Dylan Smith (Auburn) each hit six home runs to lead the team.

Overpowering Offense: The nationally-ranked Mohawks led all PGCBL teams during the regular season in batting average (.299), slugging percentage (.428), on-base percentage (.401), runs scored (316), hits (475), runs batted in (283), doubles (91), total bases (680), hit-by-pitch (84) and extra-base hits (130). Amsterdam finished second in home runs (36) and walks (199). The largest margins for the Mohawks came in RBI (64 between first and second) and hit-by-pitch (26 between first and second).

Big Ed, PGCBL Home Run King: Amsterdam's Ed Charlton (NJIT) finished the regular season as the PGCBL's all-time home run leader. In two PGCBL regular seasons, Charlton hit 13 home runs. He slugged seven last summer and added six more this season. Charlton had competition this summer from second-year Glens Falls Golden Eagle Josh Anderson (FIU). Charlton was the first to surpass Erick Gaylord's all-time record of 10 though Anderson, who hit nine home runs in 2011, was right on Charlton's heels. Eventually, the two were tied with 12 home runs apiece and Charlton belted his 13th blast overall and sixth this summer in a 17-2 rout of Glens Falls on July 27. It should be noted that Charlton missed part of the college regular season due to injury.

Veteran Presence: Ed Charlton (NJIT), Brian Ruby (Binghamton) and Chris Kalica (St. John's 2013-14) were all part of Amsterdam's league championship team last summer. Ruby and Kalica were both added to the team during the course of the season. All three now have a chance to win their second PGCBL crowns. Ruby hit .273 in 23 games with Amsterdam last year. This summer, he played in 40 regular season games and batted .325. Kalica made three appearances for the Mohawks in the regular season last summer and then started Game 2 of the PGCBLCS against Glens Falls. This summer, Kalica topped all PGCBL pitchers with 21 total appearances. He finished the regular season 3-0 with a 1.34 earned run average. Charlton, in two years with the Mohawks, has totaled 13 home runs, 63 RBI and a .325 batting average.

Top of the Line-up Ma: Amsterdam's Kyle Barrett spent the spring as the University of Kentucky's starting right fielder and lead-off man. Barrett topped the 'Cats in batting average as a true freshman and was named to the SEC's All-Freshman Team. This summer, Barrett, when healthy, has been a constant at the top of Amsterdam's line-up. He leads the Mohawks with 18 stolen bases and his .343 batting average is the second best among Tribe regulars.

War Eagle: Some of Amsterdam's biggest contributions this season have come from a group of three rising sophomores from Auburn. Dylan Smith led all Amsterdam hitters with 34 RBI and tied for the team lead with six home runs. Smith batted .325 with 40 hits during the regular season. He recorded one walk-off hit and scored another walk-off run in Tribe victories. Ebert, a regular starter for the Tigers this past spring, was a late addition to the Mohawks in early June. He belted five home runs, drove in 27 runs and posted a .318 on-base percentage. Ebert has four RBI in three playoff games. Wingenter topped all Tribe hilltoppers with 55 strikeouts. He went 2-4 with a 3.04 ERA in 10 regular season starts. Sunday, Wingenter pitched six strong innings in Amsterdam's 9-4 Game 3 win over Albany at Shuttleworth Park. The trio will have a brand new coach when it returns home, former Oklahoma assistant Sunny Galloway.

The Constant Gardiner: Josh Gardiner (Radford) was one of Amsterdam's top players throughout the season. Gardiner, the lone non-BCS bat in Amsterdam's Big Five, led the Mohawks with 40 runs scored, 15 doubles and 14 hit-by-pitch. The RU product finished among the top five in nearly every offensive category for the Mohawks. He batted .327 with 49 hits, 33 RBI, 26 walks, 15 stolen bases and four home runs. Gardiner slugged .520 and accrued a .466 on-base percentage. Late in the regular season, Gardiner ripped off an eight-game hitting streak in which he batted .667 (12-for-18). At one point, Gardiner ripped off three-straight games with three hits and scored three runs each in those games.

'Noles: For the first-time ever, Amsterdam's line-up this season featured two players from Florida State. The Seminoles set the right side of their infield to the Rug City in second baseman John Sansone and first baseman John Nogowski. Both players were starters on Florida State's 57-win team during the collegiate season. The 'Noles made it to the Super Regionals. Nogowski has been a powerhouse in the middle of the Amsterdam line-up with team highs in batting average (.365), hits (54), total bases (79), slugging percentage (.534), walks (29) and on-base percentage (.497). Nogowski also won a PGCBL Player of the Week award. Sansone hit .288 during the regular season with three home runs and 23 RBI. He had 36 hits in 38 games and managed a .375 on-base percentage.

Heavy Duty Relievers: Amsterdam's Chris Kalica (St. John's 2013-14) and Mike Urbanski (Binghamton) each logged significant time out of the bullpen. Kalica tied a Mohawks PGCBL-era single-season record with 21 appearances. He became the third Amsterdam pitcher in the last three years to appear in at least 20 games; he was the second to lead the league in games pitched. Kalica struck out 29 and walked four in 33.2 innings. Twenty of his 21 appearances came in relief. Urbanski finished second on the team with 18 appearances. The Tribe closer won five games and saved four. He amassed a 20:3 strikeout-to-walk ratio with 40 strikeouts and six walks. At one point during the regular season, Urbanski seated 27 batters in a row over multiple appearances.

Just Win Baby: In two PGCBL seasons, Amsterdam starting pitcher Matt Snyder (Temple 2013-14) has won eight games. The two-time PGCBL All-Star Game selection went 3-3 for Albany in 2012 following a redshirt season at Virginia Tech. This summer, Snyder was one of Amsterdam's arms. He went 5-0 with a 1.35 ERA over nine regular season starts. He struck out 43 and walked 16 in 46.2 innings. Opponents against the Temple-bound pitcher hit just .187. Snyder started Game 1 of the divisional series against his former team, Albany, and pitched a five-hitter over 6.2 innings. Overall, Snyder has won nine decisions overall in the PGCBL.

Matt Burch, Playoff Specialist: Elmira manager Matt Burch has guided three teams to the playoffs in four seasons as manager. He holds a 9-2 all-time record in the postseason. Burch's 2007 league champion Pioneers went undefeated in the NYCBL playoffs. His first postseason squad, the 2006 Pioneers, lost 2-1 in a best-of-three opening round series to the Allegany County Nitros. Elmira has not lost a playoff game under Burch since Game 3 of an opening round series in the 2006 playoffs.

Playoff Magic in the Soaring City: All-time in the playoffs, the summer collegiate Elmira Pioneers are 13-4. Elmira has advanced to the league championship series three times (2007, 2010, 2013) under two different managers – Matt Burch and Dan Shwam.

Turnaround Time: Elmira finished the regular season on a 1-8 run. The Pios split a doubleheader with Watertown on July 23 and then won just once after that over the final eight days of the regular season. Elmira, in second place in the PGCBL West at the time it clinched a playoff spot, tumbled into third place in the division behind Newark who went 8-2 over the final two weeks of the season. Elmira traveled to Newark and shut out the Pioneers, 5-0, in the opening round of the playoffs and then swept 29-19 Watertown in the divisional finals.

Straw That Stirs the Drink: All summer long, Chris Kalousdian (Manhattan) has been Elmira's top offensive weapon. Kalousdian ended the regular season as Elmira's leader in nearly every offensive category including batting average, hits, runs scored, doubles, RBI, slugging percentage, on-base percentage and stolen bases. At the league level, the rising senior from Manhattan paced the PGCBL in slugging percentage, hits, doubles and total bases. He finished second in batting average. Kalousdian was a PGCBL All-Star Game starter. He smashed a first-inning double off of Amsterdam's Matt Snyder (Temple 2013-14) and scored one run.

Two-Way Threats: Elmira boasts a pair of strong two-play players in shortstop/closer Parker Curry (Samford) and starting pitcher/outfielder Spencer Henderson (UC Davis). Offensively, Curry led all PGCBL batters during the regular season with 12 sacrifice hits. He primarily batted second in Elmira's line-up behind Chris Kalousdian (Manhattan). Curry compiled 30 hits, 12 RBI and 12 runs scored. On the mound, he converted six saves in 16 appearances and went 3-2 with a 2.62 ERA. The flamethrower from Samford struck out 18 and walked four in 24.0 innings. Henderson, a mid-season arrival, batted .329 in 21 games with 24 hits, 11 walks, 11 runs scored and 10 RBI. The rising sophomore from UC Davis also was part of Elmira's starting rotation. He went 2-1 with a 3.46 ERA and 18 strikeouts in 26.0 innings. Henderson pitched the only complete game of the regular season for Elmira in a victory at division champion Watertown as part of a doubleheader in which he out-dueled fellow Big West hurler Jake Jenkins (Pacific). Also mentioned should be Amsterdam's Kevin Guthrie (Brown). Guthrie batted .405 as Amsterdam's back-up catcher with 17 hits, 12 RBI and 11 runs scored. He pitched in nine games and went 2-1 with a 4.61 ERA.

Flair for the Gold: Elmira's Colby Gee (Ithaca), Jasper Adams (Ithaca) and Brandon Diorio (Ithaca) entered into the summer on the heels of a stellar season at NCAA Division III Ithaca College. The trio helped the Bombers reach the World Series for the first time since 1994. Ithaca finished third at the World Series and was one win away from playing Linfield (Ore.) for the national championship. Gee started 47 games for the Bombers and batted .333 with 42 RBI. Adams enjoyed a career year in which he went 7-0 with a 3.94 ERA. Two of his seven wins came in victories over Amherst and Kean in the postseason; he allowed nationally-ranked Kean just one run on three hits in the World Series. Diorio pitched in 10 games for the Bombers and threw one inning in the World Series vs. Linfield.

Great Timing: Victor Diaz (Old Dominion) was Elmira's top starting pitcher in the second half of the regular season. Diaz, a late arrival, made six regular season appearances and four starts. He went 1-1 with a 1.80 earned run average. Diaz walked none and struck out 18 in 25.0 innings. He conceded just 17 hits and compiled a 0.680 WHIP. The Perth Amboy, N.J., native turned in his best performance in the opening round of the playoffs against Newark. Diaz pitched a two-hit shutout over eight innings in a 5-0 win. He was perfect through six innings and then carried a no-hitter into the eighth. Diaz lost the no-hit bid with two outs in the eighth.

Knott Winning 2013: The 2013 season has been one of great success for Elmira's Chris Knott (East Stroudsburg). In the spring, Knott put together an All-American season for the PSAC's ESU Warriors. Knott finished among the league's top 10 in 11 different offensive categories and he led ESU in batting average, home runs, RBI, triples, total bases, slugging percentage and on-base percentage. Knott helped power the Warriors to the Division II Mid-Atlantic Regional. He was named All-PSAC and All-Mid-Atlantic Region as well as NCBWA Division II All-America honorable mention. This summer, Knott has been a constant for the Elmira offense. He finished the regular season with a .315 batting average, four home runs, 26 RBI, 45 hits, 30 runs scored, 13 doubles and six sacrifice flies. He also hit two home runs in a single game at Cooperstown.

Extra Innings: At least one game in each round of the PGCBL playoffs has gone into extra innings. In fact, a league game went into extra innings four-straight days between Wednesday and Saturday. Wednesday, the final night of the regular season, Glens Falls and Albany needed 16 innings to decide a winner in a game that determined the final playoff spot in the East. Thursday, Albany needed 11 innings to pull out a 6-5 win over Mohawk Valley in the opening round of the playoffs. Friday night, Elmira and Watertown played 14 innings at the Alex T. Duffy Fairgrounds. The Pioneers pulled out a 7-6 victory. Saturday night, Amsterdam and Albany went into the 10th inning at Bob Bellizzi Field in Albany. The Dutchmen became the first PGCBL playoff team to win an extra-inning game at home with a 9-8 triumph.
